Art

Find your happy medium. Learn to express yourself in an Art class at Chinook.

Acrylics - A Taste

Looking for a beginning painting class? Acrylics are easy to paint with, easy to learn to use, and are a great medium for beginners. Acrylics are rich, vibrant and expressive, more forgiving than watercolours, fast-drying, and unlike oil paints, they don't fill up the room with toxic fumes. In this introductory class, aimed at absolute beginners, learn how to mix and blend colours, use brushes, play with colour, paint forms that have depth and dimension, and paint some familiar objects. All supplies included.

Instructor: Bill Bewick (see profile on our website)

Chalk Pastel - A Taste NEW

Are you interested in learning a new art technique? This 1-day workshop introduces you to a unique and beautiful art form using chalk pastel, which is surprisingly fast to learn. With instruction from an award-winning professional artist, discover how to use your fingers to create a beautiful painting that you will be proud to display. All supplies included. Instructor: Taybe Joodaki (see profile on our website)

1 Class - $169

LOOKING TO SPEND TIME WITH YOUR TEEN?

We are excited to offer the opportunity for parents and teens (13 - 17 years) to enroll in courses together! Call 403-777-7224 for information.

Painting & More - Studio Time

Do you need space to work on your art projects? Would you like the opportunity for consultation, critique and some instruction from an experienced art instructor? We provide a friendly atmosphere in which you can work on a project in acrylic painting, oil painting, pottery, sculpture and watercolour. Supplies are bring your own or pay-as-you-go. All artists from beginner to intermediate are welcome.

Prenuptial, Postnuptial & Cohabitation Agreement

A prenuptial, postnuptial or cohabitation agreement pre-determines how separating parties distribute their property and incomes at the end of a relationship through separation or divorce. Although no one anticipates a separation or divorce on entering a relationship, it is a wise investment to ensure that a plan is created in the event that a separation occurs. These agreements are particularly necessary in second marriages/relationships and blended-family situations, where obligations imposed by the law may not be well known at the outset of a relationship.

My Story - Spin Straw into Gold

We live our life forwards, yet read it backwards. Discover the unique story that your life makes as you reflect on where your desires, struggles, and insights have taken you. Learn to use free-fall writing, guided meditation, and discussion to put your conflicts into a bigger picture and see yourself as the hero/heroine in your own wandering journey even as it is happening. No previous writing experience is necessary. Instructor: Wilma Rubens (see profile on our website)

Writing for Social Media

Explore writing for websites, blogs, and the most popular forms of social media. Learn to create clear, concise and relevant content that attracts and retains the attention of visitors to the online marketplace. Explore the effective use of headlines and incorporation of keywords. Learn about the benefits of the correct use of English and the pitfalls associated with intentional and accidental errors. This course also presents ways you can use to promote yourself as a writer for social media. Please note: This course focuses on mastering the style of writing that is required for online content. It is not about using social media for marketing and promotion.

Income Tax Policy for Non-Credit Continuing Education

Chinook Learning Services, Calgary Board of Education, is certified by Human Resources and Skills Development Canada to be a designated educational institution for the purposes of sections 118.5 and 118.6 of the Income Tax Act. Canada Revenue Agency Income Tax Act applies only to those programs or courses offered by our institution which have been designated to provide students with sufficient skills to enable them to work in or improve their skills in a recognized occupation. Students who have attained the age of 16 years may qualify for a tuition credit, if their total tuition fees exceed $100. Certification by Human Resources and Skills Development Canada in no way guarantees that Canada Revenue Agency will automatically accept receipts for all courses or programs offered by our institution, for tuition tax credit purposes. Students who qualify for an education credit can submit a request, for a T2202A to the Chinook Learning Services Registration office.

Students may be requested to provide proof to Canada Revenue Agency that they are working towards an occupation or improving their skills in an occupation by taking this course.

Note: High School Upgrading, ESL and personal interest Continuing Education courses cannot be used to claim the tuition or education amount for income tax purposes. (T2202A)
